Friendship . . .

With the clasped hands as a symbol, we, the students of Mansfield State Teachers College, spotlight that which we feel is most characteristic of our campus—the friendliness among the students and faculty. This spirit of friendship is planted during the freshman year and fostered in the classroom, by the organizations and by the social events throughout the year. We hope this publication faithfully reflects the friendly atmosphere of our campus.

DR. GEORGE A. RETAN

Dedication

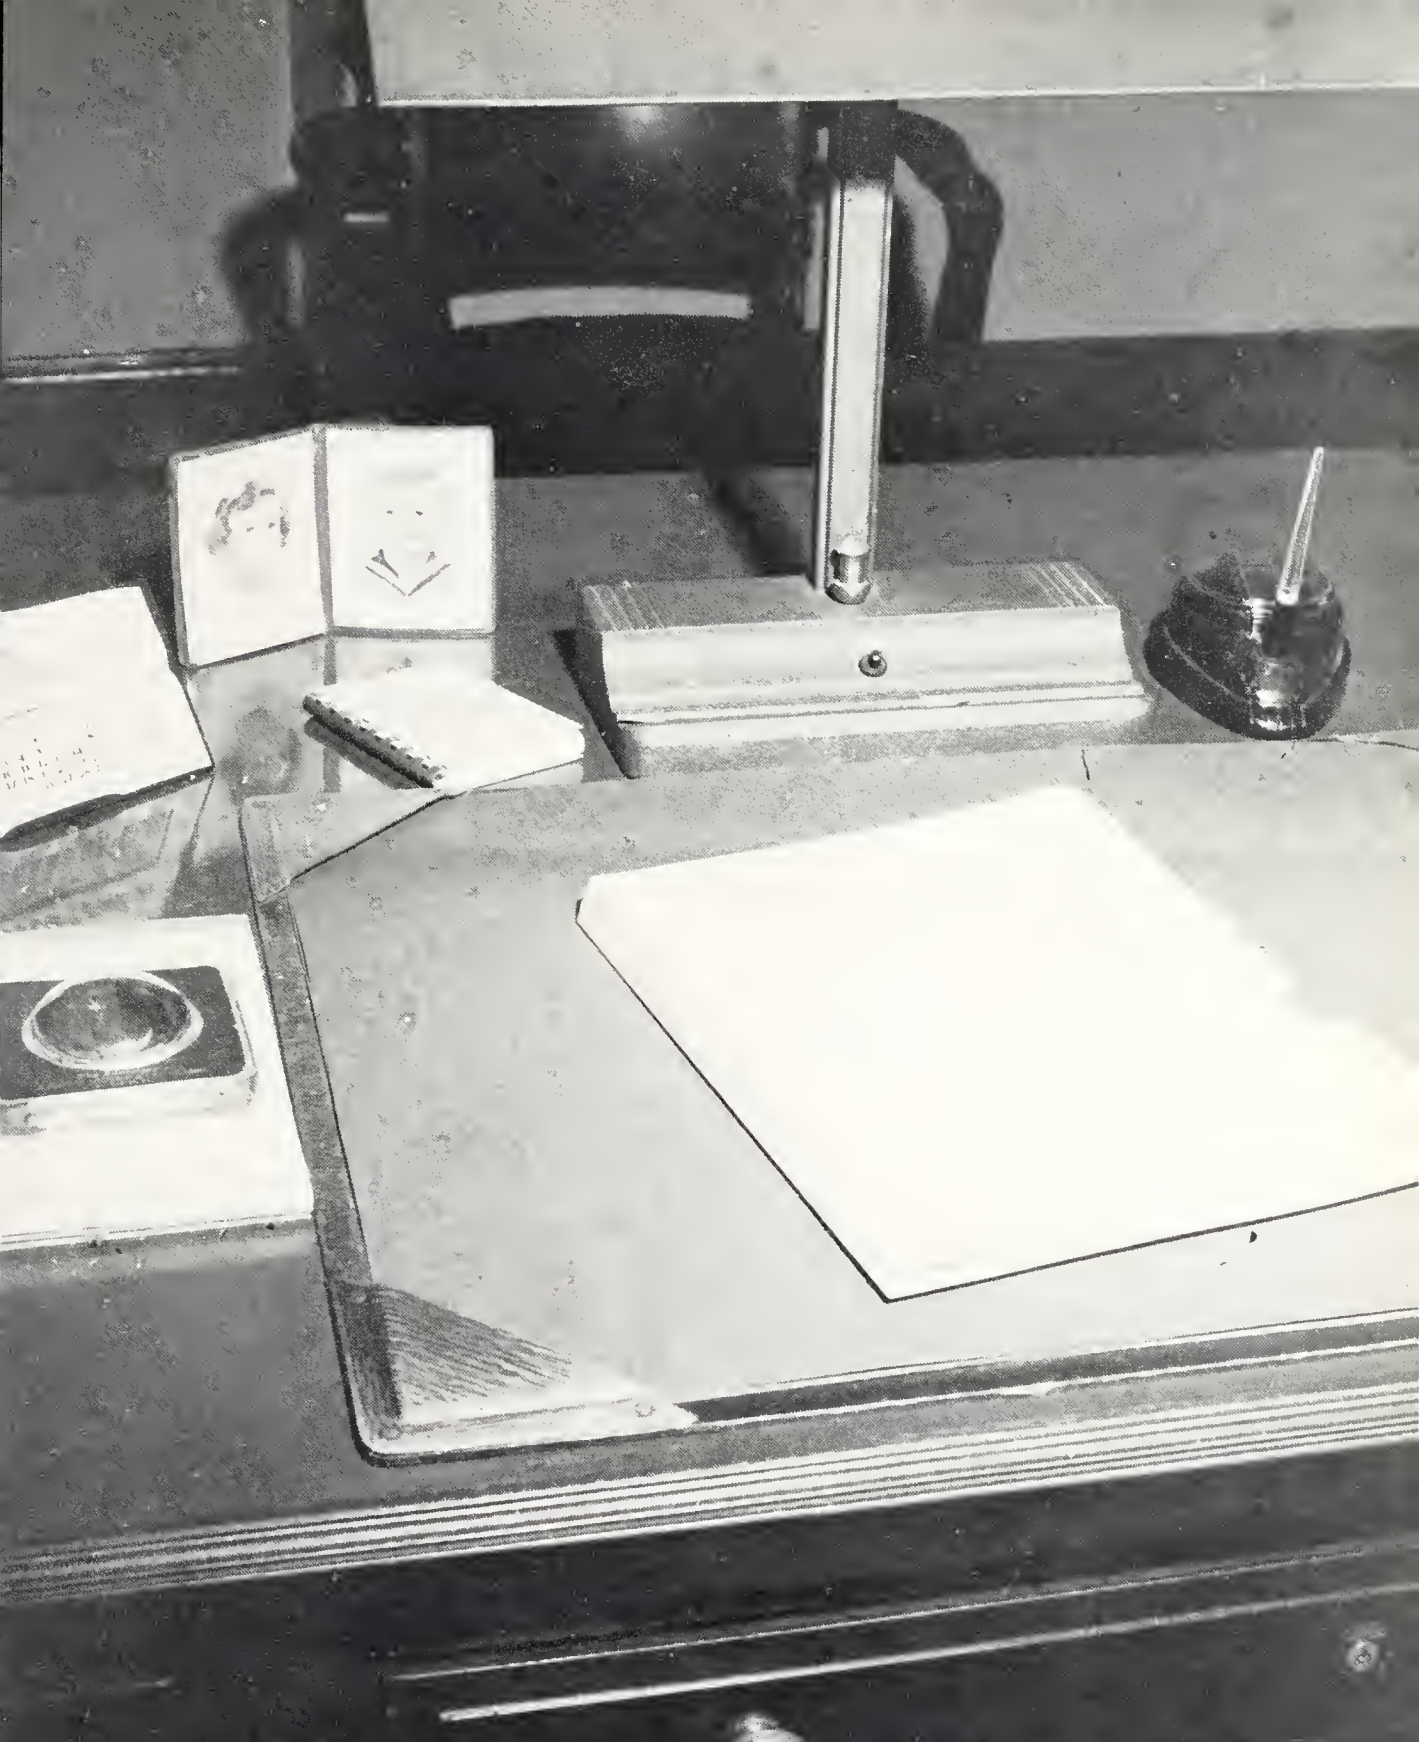

Throughout a period of twenty-five years, Dr. George A. Retan has been a vital and moving force on the Mansfield campus. He has been unflaggingly interested in children and college students under his supervision; he has been constantly loyal to his colleagues. His cooperation with his associates has never been questioned. His enthusiasm for, his keen sense of humor with, and his sympathy and understanding of the youth of each succeeding generation have been carried afar by those who have had the privilege of his instruction. He has even furthered the highest ideals in the field of education. It is because his influence has been and will continue to be far-reaching that the 1952 Carontawan staff, with affection and respect, dedicates this issue.

President's Message

Over a span of nearly a century campus leaders and faculty members have created a community of friendliness that has become a cherished Mansfield tradition. What this community of friendliness may mean to each one of us as we live and study and play is expressed in these lines by an unknown poet:

*May every soul that touches mine —
Be it the slightest contact —
Get therefrom some good,
Some little grace, one kindly thought,
One aspiration yet unfelt,
One bit of courage for the darkening sky,
One gleam of faith to brave the thickening ills of life,
One glimpse of brighter skies beyond the gathering mist,
To make this life worthwhile,
And Heaven a surer heritage.*

"To desire the same things and to reject the same things, constitutes true friendship."

—SALLUST

ELLAMAE JACKSON

"Real friendship is a slow grower, and never thrives unless ingrafted upon a stock of known and reciprocal merit."

—LORD CHESTERFIELD

Dean of Men

SAMUEL M. LONG

"To have a good friend is one of the highest delights of life; to be a good friend is one of the noblest and most difficult undertakings."

Friendship depends not upon fancy, imagination or sentiment, but upon character. There is no man so poor that he is not rich if he has a friend; there is no man so rich that he is not poor without a friend."

Student Council

The STUDENT COUNCIL is the governing body of the Student Government Association of the college. Its members are the heads of all classes and organizations on campus in addition to the separately elected officers. The major duties of this council are to plan the extra-curricular activities program, to publish the "Password", to present the opinions and problems of the students to the administration, to plan the social calendar, and to foster closer relations between the student body and the administration.

Women's Dormitory Council

Women students living in NORTH HALL elect the council to administer student life in the dormitory so that all may live comfortably and with consideration for others, may develop group and individual responsibilities, may strive for high scholastic standards, and may promote friendliness among the women in the dormitory.

Men's Dormitory Council

The MEN'S DORMITORY COUNCIL is the governing body of the Association of Men Students living in the college dormitory. Its purposes are to regulate student life in the dormitory in order that proper conditions for study and living may exist, and to encourage friendly relations among the men in the dormitory.

The Pause That Refreshes

Departments

Home Economics

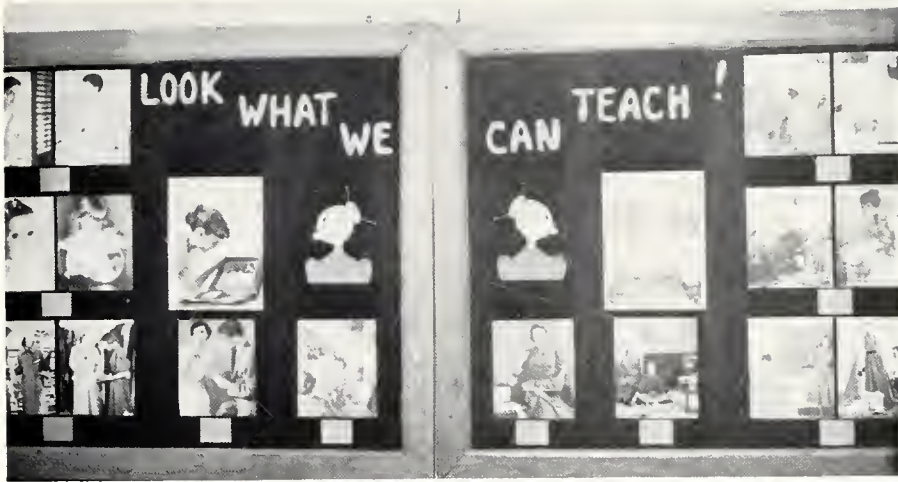

MRS. MORALES

Under the careful and capable supervision of home economics instructors, home economics majors go forth well-prepared to teach efficiently. Every opportunity is given to the students to learn and practice every phase of their chosen profession, from practice teaching and home management to academic subjects and education courses. Such worthwhile activities as fashion shows, food demonstrations, dinners, teas, and exhibits are necessary features of the HOME ECONOMICS Course.

Dinner At The Apartment

Bulletin Board

There are three reasons for the importance of this department: the homemakers have in mind the happiness and well-being of others; the students realize the important place of the home in American society; and the graduate is prepared to live graciously in her own home or within her profession. Each course is interrelated so that in the planning and execution of such a home economics program, the student is prepared to inspire others to create better living by her personal and professional development.

Music Department

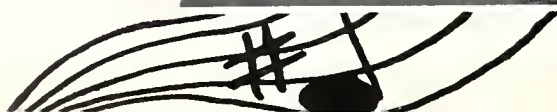

MISS BROOKS

Believing that, in the midst of this present international conflict and unrest, the arts are needed to affirm fundamental beliefs, the instructors of the MUSIC DEPARTMENT attempt to instill in their students the importance and inspirational value of music as one of the most expressive of the communicative arts. The department curriculum is based on the musical literature from the world's great composers.

Vocal Lesson

Orchestra

Opportunity is given the student to become better acquainted with all facets of music education—composition, interpretation by musical instrument, music theory, teaching, and educational courses. Naturally, the educational aspect of music is emphasized, for the aim of the music teacher is to help his pupils acquire a greater and more sympathetic understanding of all music and to encourage a finer aesthetic taste, for music is one of the most essential and convincing expressions of that faith in truth and beauty which alone makes life worthwhile.

Music Class

Student Teaching

Elementary Department

Mansfield's excellent elementary school plant, staffed by experienced graduate teachers, offers students a typical classroom situation in which to practice teach. The aim of the ELEMENTARY teacher is to give the pupil a solid basis of the elementary essentials for the continued education of the secondary school, and to expose the child to the customs, modes and history of American culture.

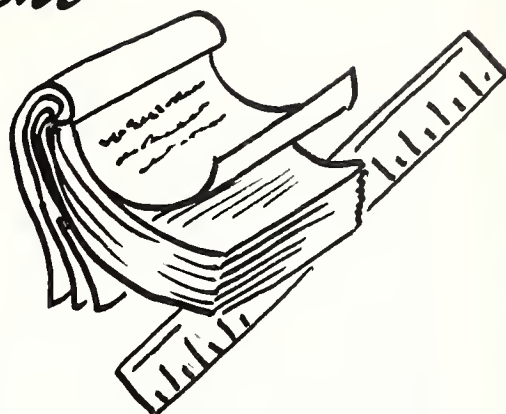

DR. RETAN

Student Teaching

Secondary Department

The College prepares competent instructors for SECONDARY schools to take up the training and education of the child at the point where the elementary teachers left off. The Mansfield supervisors teach students to prepare pupils to take their place in society as enlightened citizens of this nation fully capable of self-government and to become expert in one or more of the specialized fields which the welfare of society may require.

Freshman Class

Even as M.S.T.C. found September on its campus, so too it found a group of one hundred and twenty aspiring FRESHMEN, wandering confusedly about. We were excited and we were shy. We faced the future with just a touch of trepidation, knowing that somewhere in it there was an initiation awaiting us. We survived this dreaded phase, no longer lowly "Frosh" but full-fledged Freshmen. We had lost our timidity; we had gained a new pride—a pride in ourselves, in our class, in our school. With this pride came also a new loyalty to, and a humble respect for, Mansfield.

We sincerely thank the upperclassmen and the faculty for helping us to orient ourselves to this new environment.

The Nurses

Students entering the Robert Packer Hospital and the Hahneman School of Nursing spend the first fifteen weeks of their three-year course at Mansfield. They carry an intensified course of academic and nursing subjects.

Despite their heavy schedule the prospective nurses find time to participate in many college activities and sports and look upon their stay at Mansfield as a memorable initiation to their noble and chosen profession.

Junior Class

Once again the CLASS OF "53" put forth its friendly and cooperative spirit in making this year a happy one at M.S.T.C. This was best shown in our Talent Show, presented on Parents' Day, October 13th.

Under the capable direction of Dr. Schappelle and our officers, the class has truly upheld the reputation it has gained during our two previous years here.

Combining with the Senior Class, the annual Junior-Senior Prom was presented on April 19th.

Now is the time when the CLASS OF 1952 must perform the inevitable duty which comes to all seniors—that of saying a farewell to the college which we chose to enter in the autumn of 1948. We will long remember what we did here and we will never forget the friends we have made at M.S.T.C.

The number of students that can be elected to this national honorary publication is determined by the total enrollment of the college. The qualifications are excellence and sincerity in scholarship, leadership and participation in extra-curricular activities, citizenship, service to the school, and promise of future usefulness to profession and society.

The students are chosen by the President of the College, the Dean of Instruction, the Deans of Students, the Departmental Heads, and eight students appointed by the Student Council.

This is the highest honor the College can bestow upon any student and the entire student body considers it a worthy recognition of the institution's outstanding men and women.

The ART CLUB is an honorary organization on the campus which endeavors to promote an appreciation of the fine arts through the study and creation of artistic subjects. Members emphasize that Art lives everywhere with everyone and is not a special field for masters only. The theme—Art in Daily Living—complies with the organization's aims.

The Art Club plans and carries out the campus decorations for Christmas and May Day. It is affiliated with the Eastern Arts Association to which delegates are sent each year.

The ASSOCIATION OF CHILDHOOD EDUCATION INTERNATIONAL, of which this elementary club is an affiliate, is an international organization for all students working with or for children. The purposes of the organization are to work for the education and well-being of children and to encourage continued professional growth of teachers and leaders in this field.

The members feel that through this society they can enrich and further develop their professional ideals and attitudes. It is an excellent opportunity to meet both students and faculty of the Elementary Department in a cordial and informal but professional atmosphere. Meetings are times of learning and recreation for the many interested and active members.

"Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth." College is a time for growing. The fellowship found in a group of Christian young people who are seeking to grow spiritually has a unique quality which differs from that of any other organization. The friendship found among Christians is to be cherished above all else in life.

"If people are more precious than all else, does that not mean that the secrets of a truly successful use of the gift of life are all bound up in learning how to live our lives in right relationship to the lives of other people? The whole law of life is summed up in the commandment to love the people who come into our lives. If we have learned how to live in rich and glad friendship with God and other people, we have learned Jesus own rule 'for abundant life'. For the problem of friendship is the problem of life itself. He who has learned to love—and only he—has learned to live."—Henry Churchill King.

The WOMEN'S ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION, one of M.S.T.C.'s largest and most enthusiastic clubs, provides an opportunity for women at Mansfield to participate in numerous athletic activities. Its aim is to promote good sportsmanship and to give the women students an opportunity to develop their athletic abilities.

The organization owns the equipment for various sports and sponsors tournaments in many competitive activities during the school year. Through such activities good sportsmanship and fellowship are promoted. Closer ties among the members are made by the numerous social events of the club. All women students are eligible for membership.

One of the most active organizations on campus, the COLLEGE PLAYERS, has as its objectives the growth of those qualities which contribute most to personal and professional advancement. For its productions it presents Broadway hits as well as such dramatic classics as "The Barretts of Wimpole Street," "A Midsummer Night's Dream," "Taming of the Shrew," and "Pride and Prejudice." The dramatic organization is an integral part of college life, offering to any interested student fellowship, intellectual, cultural and artistic growth.

By the integrated hard work needed to produce a play, members become better friends and obtain a wider knowledge of all aspects of dramatic productions.

Alpha Psi Omega

ALPHA PSI OMEGA is a national honorary dramatic fraternity whose purpose it is to provide an honor society for those doing a high standard of work in dramatics. Membership in Lambda Upsilon Chapter by no means sets one apart from the rest of College Players. Eligibility is based on a credit system set up by headquarters. When sufficient points have been accrued by any player, he may join this fraternity.

1951 SEASON

Two weeks before the official opening of school some thirty men reported to Coach Ted Casey for practice. From this small group, including many freshmen, Coach Casey and his assistant, Ed Rushin, built our team around co-captains "Moose" Zanowicz and Don Mahon.

It was a small but scrappy and highly spirited team that opened the season against Bloomsburg at Berwick. Although slated to be beaten by a top-sided score, the Mountaineers held the Huskies to 20 points and scored 7 themselves in an exciting game.

A heartbreaker was lost to Indiana S.T.C. as the Indians held a 7-0 score tallied late in the second period via a pass. It was an evenly-matched game most of the way, the slight edge owing to the superiority in numbers; 24 Mansfield men took the field against Indiana's squad of 60.

Mansfield lost its third straight game to East Stroudsburg and their deadly passing attack. East Stroudsburg completed 7 out of 15 passes to win 21-13.

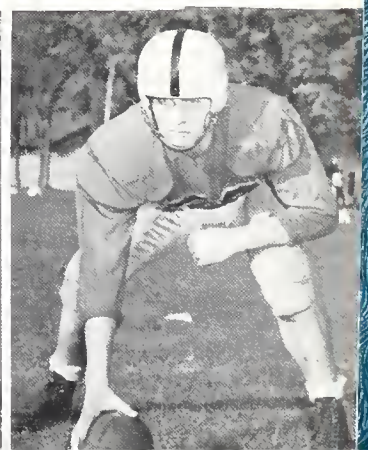

On October 13, the Mountaineers passed their way to their first victory of the season as they downed Brockport S.T.C. 14-7 before one of the largest Parents' Day crowds in the school's history. The New Yorkers tied the game early in the fourth quarter, but a few minutes later Ed Loos carried the ball over for the final touchdown, and Don Mahon kicked the extra point.

The Alumni witnessed a sad Homecoming Day as King's College chalked up Mansfield's fourth defeat, 14-7. Statistically, the Mountaineers outplayed the King's squad, leading in total yardage gained, first downs made, and percentage of passes completed, but statistics do not count, and a fighting King's eleven went home with a victory.

The following week Mansfield met the Bald Eagles of Lock Haven and trounced them 27-14. As far as the fans were concerned, beating Lock Haven made it a perfect day and climaxed the season.

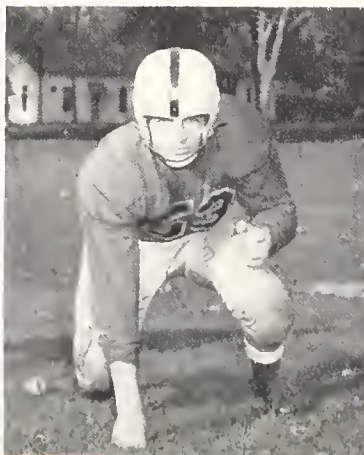

The Edinboro game was canceled because of snow at Edinboro and a week later the Mountaineers travelled to Millesville, where they dropped the last game of the season, 28-13.

Throughout the entire season, no setback was caused by lack of ability or spirit within the M.S.T.C. squad. In all contests the Mountaineers had to fight uphill against greater numbers and reserves, but regardless of the odds the squad proved themselves to all who attended their games and most of all to their college. No more can be expected of any team under such conditions.

BASKETBALL 1951-1952

The first day of practice showed promise of a well-rounded season for Mansfield. Ten lettermen returned with a host of capable newcomers, each fighting for a position on the 12-man varsity squad.

The Mountaineers opened the season and scored a first game victory, defeating Harpur College of New York in a thrilling 80-72 game.

The start was fast pegged and Mansfield dropped the next three games to Wilkes, 86-58; Cortland, S.T.C., 84-56; and Lock Haven, 56-52.

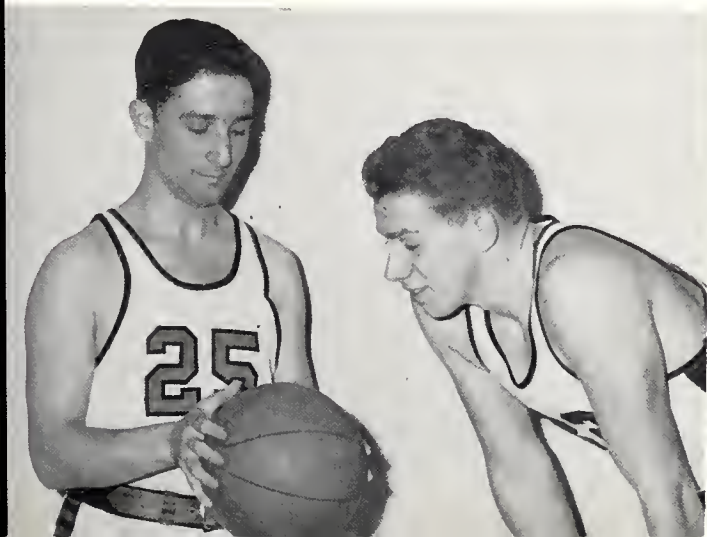

The following game brought a well-deserved victory as the Mountaineers pulled an upset, defeating Lycoming 59-52 on Lyco's floor. Mansfield lost their fourth game to Harpur in an action packed game, 70-68.

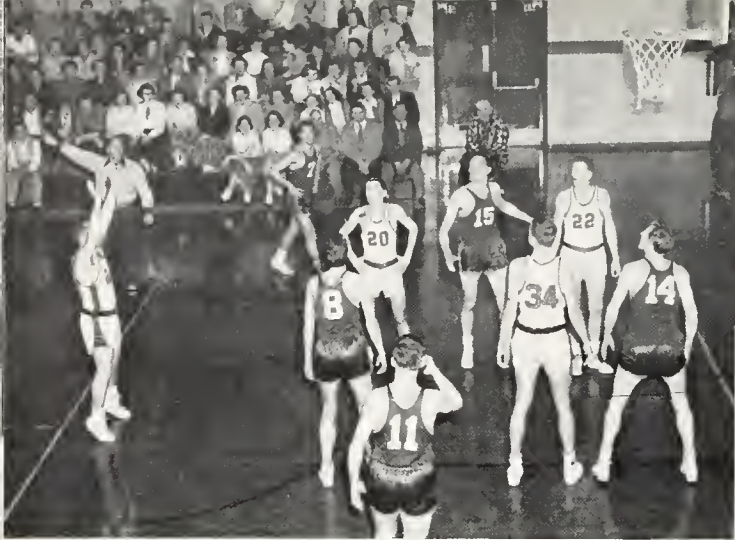

Ten games remain yet to be played. All of them promise to provide many thrilling and exciting moments for the college and its fans.

Coach Ted Casey and assistant coach Ed Rushin, faced with the problem of building an almost completely new team, had but five returning lettermen around which to form a team. Lacking depth in the pitching department, Coach Casey slowly smoothed out Dick Wilcox and Curt Maxson to carry the brunt of the season. When the final crack of the bat was heard and the 1951 season ended, Mansfield could add but three wins against four defeats to its athletic ledger.

The Mountaineers opened up the season with a thrilling game at Lock Haven, but came out on the short end of the bat with the Bald Eagles ahead 5-4. To add to the thrills Mansfield executed one of those rarely seen triple plays with the bases loaded in the ninth inning to send the game into extra innings.

The Red and Black dropped their second game to the Bloomsburg Huskies—the score, 4-3. Wilcox, pitching fine ball, was the victim of hard luck as he allowed the Huskies five hits while his teammates garnered seven. Callaghan and George each collected two of these hits.

Mansfield celebrated May Day and recorded their first win by trouncing the Warriors of Lycoming College 19-8 at Smythe Park. It was in this game that Larry Callaghan belted

The Mountaineers then traveled to Wilkes-Barre where they lost a wild and error-filled game to the Monarchs of Kings College, 14-10.

Following a rained-out game with Bloomsburg, the Mounts submitted to a strong Ithaca nine, 7-4.

Lycoming fell victim once more to Mansfield's nine as they were defeated by a score of 6-5.

Bad weather again intervened and canceled the second Lock Haven game but the Red and Black climaxed the season with a 3-1 win over Kings College.

Women's Sports

Friendliness and cooperation are the key players of good sportsmanship on this campus. Our program of physical education as it is presented at Mansfield is not organized for the player who excels in sports, but rather for the one who wishes to have a chance to learn techniques and skills which later he may develop himself.

Miss Dieffenbach and Miss Duff try to include sports of all types—volleyball, tennis, bowling, softball, basketball, golf and many more on a year around schedule.

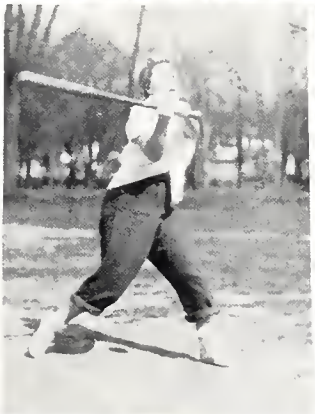

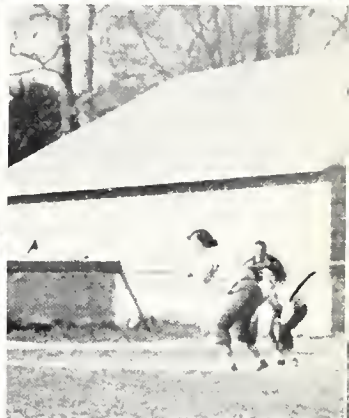

Outside of physical education classes there is friendly class competition in athletic tournaments that are conducted to bring closer relationships between faculty and students and among the students themselves.

MISS DUFF

MISS DIEFFENBACH

Men's Sports

A good recreational program represents a means to an end. The activities here at Mansfield give the students, as future teachers, experiences that will help each participate in his future job. These activities represent a medium through which students learn to appreciate sports, fair play and fellowship. It is these qualities that Mansfield graduates will have to teach and portray.

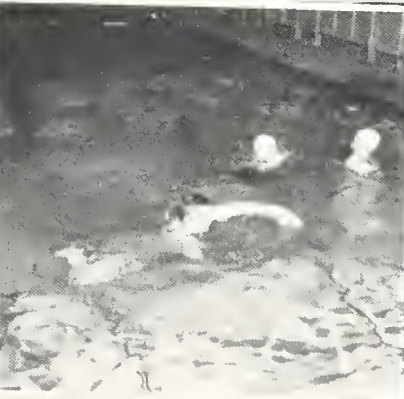

Under the supervision of Mr. Decker, the program offers basketball, softball, volleyball, tennis, swimming, bowling, shuffleboard, pool and various winter sports. Leagues in softball, basketball and bowling are organized annually.

SIGMA ZETA is a national honorary science society. Its objectives are not only the recognition and the encouragement of high standards of scholarship in science and mathematics, but the instigation of an expanding fellowship among members.

Active membership is open to juniors and seniors possessing high ideals in scholarship. Students in the first two years of college, whose scientific work indicates promise of development, are eligible for associate membership. Such activities as field trips, lectures by eminent persons connected with science, and picnics are the inspirational and less formal aspects of the Lambda Chapter.

The national honorary home economics fraternity on campus is known as KAPPA OMICRON PHI. To become a member a girl must have attained the rank of a second semester sophomore with an above average scholastic rating in all academic and practical subjects and must have proved herself worthy of becoming a member.

The Mansfield chapter, Alpha Beta, attempts to stimulate cultural, intellectual, and professional growth and amicable associations among the members. Each member must cooperate and assume a large share of responsibility which will help her gain professional prestige and practical knowledge.

LAMBDA MU is an honorary music sorority. It holds as ideals for membership high scholarship, leadership, character, and sisterhood. Pledges must have high averages in both music and academic courses. Initiation is held semi-annually and pledges are introduced at a banquet. To demonstrate sorority accomplishment and cooperation, members participate in assembly programs before the student body. The aims of the closely-knit sisterhood are to promote closer friendship among its members and to help them solve common problems and become better teachers.

I Go Greyhound because it's

The Friendly Way to Travel

Somehow the people you meet aboard a Greyhound seem more neighborly, more relaxed, easier to talk to.

Then there are the deeply cushioned, reclining easychairs . . . complete freedom from driving strain . . . frequent, prompt schedules . . . the low fares that hardly dent your budget.

Add up these reasons, and you'll know why GREYHOUND has come to mean FRIENDLY TRAVEL wherever you go!
